

UNIVERSITY OF FERRARA

Department of Economics and Management

Research Seminars

Department of Economics and Management

New Public Management and the Social Construction of Accounting and Accountability: The Case of the Australian Public Service
Zahirul Hoque

Friday, 30 March, 11-13

Aula EC5 - Via Voltapaletto, 11
Dipartimento di Economia e Management

The Research Seminars are promoted and organized by

Leonzio Rizzo e Antonio Musolesi

Per informazioni: lunchseminar@unife.it

UNIVERSITY OF FERRARA

Department of Economics and Management

Professor Hoque is Professor of Management Accounting/Public Sector and Executive Director of the Centre for Public Sector Governance, Accountability and Performance (CPSGAP) at La Trobe University Melbourne. He was Head of the Department of Accounting and Data Analytics from 1 August 2014 through to 31 December 2017. He was a Visiting Research Fellow in the School of Information Systems at Queensland University of Technology (QUT) for a period of three years (2012-2015) to complete his joint ARC Discovery Project "Cost-aware Business Process Management" with QUT's Business Process Management Research Group.

Professor Hoque is the founding Editor-in-Chief of the Journal of Accounting & Organizational Change (www.emeraldinsight.com/jaoc.htm), and acts as editorial board member for leading accounting journals such as: Accounting, Auditing & Accountability Journal, The British Accounting Review, Financial Accountability & Management, Qualitative Research in Accounting & Management and Accounting, Accountability & Performance. He was on the Victorian Public Sector and Not-for-Profit Accounting Committee between 2012 and 2015. Prior to moving to Melbourne, he served the CPA Australia Branch Councils in Darwin and Geelong as a council member.

Professor Hoque's prior positions were: Chair in Accounting in the School of Accounting, Economics and Finance of Deakin University at the Geelong campus, Victoria, Australia (4 February 2005 – 1 December 2006); Professor and Head of School of Business, Charles Darwin University (formerly Northern Territory University), Australia (January 2003 – February 2005); Visiting Professor, American International University, Bangladesh (2001); Visiting Associate Professor, King Fahd University of Petroleum & Minerals, Saudi Arabia (2002); Visiting Professor at the University of Malaya in Malaysia (2010).

Professor Hoque's research interests include accounting and organizational change, management accounting, performance management, the balanced scorecard, public sector accounting, accounting in developing countries, qualitative research in accounting and management, User information trust, and a general interest in the interdisciplinary research in organisational designs. He has published a number of articles, book chapters, two edited volumes and two books, namely Handbook of Cost and Management Accounting and Strategic Management Accounting. He is on the editorial boards of several journals, namely Accounting, Auditing & Accountability Journal; The British Accounting Review; Financial Accountability and Management; Qualitative Research in Management and Accounting; and Journal of Accounting, Accountability & Performance.

Professor Hoque conducts and publishes high quality, robust, theoretical, qualitative, and quantitative research into a variety of accounting and performance management issues that have cost accounting, accountability, performance management, organisational change and governance as central themes. His current research focuses on the micro and macro links between accounting, governance and performance management that contributes to the stock of knowledge in the area of internally and externally imposed governance in corporate and government sectors.